

THE SENIOR CENTER BROADCASTER

ANNUAL Christmas PARTY

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 3RD 8AM-1PM

★ 9:00 — “Oh Holy Night”

A chalk talk w/ artist, Cora Hurtz, daughter of Elva the founder

“O Holy Night”: Learn how God used an unlikely poet to bring this beloved carol to the world with its powerful message of the redemption of mankind. It came to America at a time when peace on earth seemed impossible! “O Holy Night” will become even more precious to you after hearing this amazing story.

★ 11:30 — LUNCH

A catered Christmas Meal:

Chicken Pot Pie (sloppy) & Cole Slaw

Tom Elhadj, a HDM volunteer, is once again treating us with this delicious meal!

★ 12:15 — The Gift Exchange Game

For those wishing to continue to Mingle a rousing game will be played.

To Participate in this game, you need to bring:

ONE NEW $10 wrapped Christmas gift (suitable for a man or a woman)

UPDATES!

REMODEL FUND DONATIONS:

Susquehanna Lions Club, Bonnie O’Neil, Ida Marie Linch, Audrey Kraft, Erma Schaffner, In Loving Memory of Bernice McMann & Carol Willow, Manchester Twp, Anonymous Angels, & the Senior Center Jar now totaling $130,178.

Courtney, (church custodian) donated 14 beautiful door hangers & donated the funds to us!

GENERAL FUND DONATIONS:

Danielle & Dolly Roberts, Manchester Borough, Family Clothes Tree, & Anonymous.

Always grateful for those who are always giving back to us!

Back in July, when the Sunnyside Gang and Safe Harbor visited us for a performance, we faced an unexpected challenge. A power outage in the area led to a "no food delivery" announcement for all York County Senior Centers that morning. This left us scrambling at 8 AM to purchase and prepare food for 72 people in time for lunch. To top it off, our large coffee pot decided to quit on us as well.

Understanding the difficulties we faced, both bands went above and beyond by generously donating their performance checks back to us for our Remodel Fund. What a thoughtful and kind gesture!

Our Mission

We aspire to: enhance, enrich, enlighten and nourish the lives of our seniors, both active and homebound
